

1 Ethical teaching is based on a commitment to the learning and wellbeing of all children.

What parts of these standards might be inappropriate for use in your school teaching context?

.....
.....
.....

What parts of these standards are difficult to understand?

.....
.....
.....

What adjustments would need to be made to make them more applicable or more understandable?

.....
.....
.....

What is included that you believe should be omitted? Please give reasons.

.....
.....
.....

What has been omitted that you think is important to include? Please give reasons.

.....
.....
.....

2 Teachers collaborate with others to support teaching, learning and their professional development.

What parts of these standards might be inappropriate for use in your school teaching context?

.....
.....
.....

What parts of these standards are difficult to understand?

.....
.....
.....

What adjustments would need to be made to make them more applicable or more understandable?

.....
.....
.....

What is included that you believe should be omitted? Please give reasons.

.....
.....
.....

What has been omitted that you think is important to include? Please give reasons.

.....
.....
.....

3 Teachers understand that language plays an important role in teaching and learning.

What parts of these standards might be inappropriate for use in your school teaching context?

.....
.....
.....

What parts of these standards are difficult to understand?

.....
.....
.....

What adjustments would need to be made to make them more applicable or more understandable?

.....
.....
.....

What is included that you believe should be omitted? Please give reasons.

.....
.....
.....

What has been omitted that you think is important to include? Please give reasons.

.....
.....
.....

4 Teachers promote social justice and the redress of inequalities within their educational institutions and society more broadly.

What parts of these standards might be inappropriate for use in your school teaching context?

.....
.....
.....

What parts of these standards are difficult to understand?

.....
.....
.....

What adjustments would need to be made to make them more applicable or more understandable?

.....
.....
.....

What is included that you believe should be omitted? Please give reasons.

.....
.....
.....

What has been omitted that you think is important to include? Please give reasons.

.....
.....
.....

5 Teachers make judgments that are conceptually informed, responsive to learners and contextually appropriate.

What parts of these standards might be inappropriate for use in your school teaching context?

.....
.....

What parts of these standards are difficult to understand?

.....
.....

What adjustments would need to be made to make them more applicable or more understandable?

.....
.....

What is included that you believe should be omitted? Please give reasons.

.....
.....

What has been omitted that you think is important to include? Please give reasons.

.....
.....

6 Teaching is based on teachers' deep understanding of the subject/s they teach.

What parts of these standards might be inappropriate for use in your school teaching context?

.....
.....

What parts of these standards are difficult to understand?

.....
.....

What adjustments would need to be made to make them more applicable or more understandable?

.....
.....

What is included that you believe should be omitted? Please give reasons.

.....
.....

What has been omitted that you think is important to include? Please give reasons.

.....
.....

7 Teachers understand how their subjects are best taught and learnt.

What parts of these standards might be inappropriate for use in your school teaching context?

.....

.....

.....

What parts of these standards are difficult to understand?

.....

.....

.....

What adjustments would need to be made to make them more applicable or more understandable?

.....

.....

.....

What is included that you believe should be omitted? Please give reasons.

.....

.....

.....

What has been omitted that you think is important to include? Please give reasons.

.....

.....

.....

8 Teachers interpret the national curriculum to plan systematic sequences of lessons.

What parts of these standards might be inappropriate for use in your school teaching context?

.....

.....

.....

What parts of these standards are difficult to understand?

.....

.....

.....

What adjustments would need to be made to make them more applicable or more understandable?

.....

.....

.....

What is included that you believe should be omitted? Please give reasons.

.....

.....

.....

What has been omitted that you think is important to include? Please give reasons.

.....

.....

.....

9 Teaching involves organising, monitoring and assessing learning.

What parts of these standards might be inappropriate for use in your school teaching context?

.....
.....
.....

What parts of these standards are difficult to understand?

.....
.....
.....

What adjustments would need to be made to make them more applicable or more understandable?

.....
.....
.....

What is included that you believe should be omitted? Please give reasons.

.....
.....
.....

What has been omitted that you think is important to include? Please give reasons.

.....
.....
.....

10 Teachers interpret the national curriculum to plan systematic sequences of lessons.

What parts of these standards might be inappropriate for use in your school teaching context?

.....
.....
.....

What parts of these standards are difficult to understand?

.....
.....
.....

What adjustments would need to be made to make them more applicable or more understandable?

.....
.....
.....

What is included that you believe should be omitted? Please give reasons.

.....
.....
.....

What has been omitted that you think is important to include? Please give reasons.

.....
.....
.....

